vss

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

CHAMBER SUMMONS NO.1156 OF 2005
IN EXECUTION APPLICATION NO.96 OF 2000
IN
ARBITRATION AWARD DATED 3.8.1999

M/s.Tata Infotech Limited ... Applicants

V/s.

Yogesh K. Chopra ... Respondent

Mr.Deepak Lulia for Applicants

CORAM: SMT.NISHITA MHATRE, J.

DATED: NOVEMBER 28, 2005

P.C.:

. The Chamber Summons was sought to be served on the respondent by post. There is a postal endorsement that the packet is "not claimed". This amounts to a good service. Nobody appears for the Respondent.

2. In view of this, Chamber Summons is allowed in terms of prayer clause (a). The Respondent shall file the affidavit of his assets, both movable and immovable, bank accounts, etc. within four weeks from today.

3. Chamber Summons is disposed off accordingly.